

Rachael Walden M.S., CCC-SLP

Rachael received both Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees from the University of Nevada, Reno. She then worked for eleven years as a staff SLP at The Continuum, a local privately-owned rehabilitation clinic. Currently, Rachael is an Instructor and the Director of Clinical Services at the University of Nevada, Reno Speech and Hearing Clinic. She has held multiple leadership positions within the field of Speech-Language Pathology, both at the state and national levels. Previous board positions for NSHA included: Secretary and Vice President. Currently, she is the President of the Nevada Speech and Hearing Association (2016-2018), and the StAMP for Nevada to the American Speech Language Hearing Association (ASHA). She is passionate about the field of Speech-Language Pathology and is dedicated to furthering the interests of the profession at the state and national levels.

Rachael, her husband David, and their two sons Jack and Sam, live in Reno and enjoy many outdoor activities. Rachael's sister is also a Speech-Language Pathologist in the Washoe County School District.