

Rachel Moll, M.S., CCC-SLP

Rachel Moll earned a B.A. in Speech, Language and Hearing Sciences from the University of Colorado in 2003. After graduation, Rachel moved to San Diego, where she worked as a speech-language pathology assistant at a non-public agency for children with autism, focusing on community based services. She also worked at an elementary school and a middle school for La Mesa-Spring Valley Unified School District. After gaining experience, Rachel went to graduate school in Waco, TX. She earned her M.S. in Communication Sciences and Disorders from Baylor University in 2010. She moved to Reno to complete her last graduate internship at Renown Rehabilitation Hospital and to be closer to family. She has worked at The Continuum since graduating in 2010, servicing both pediatric and adult clients. Rachel is a member of the American Speech-Language Hearing Association and the Nevada Speech-Language Hearing Association.
